IMAGINeradiology™ Appoints New Vice President of Sales

Frank Hayes Brings Over 16 Years of Sales Management Experience

Charlotte, NC – June 19, 2007 – Frank Hayes has been appointed Vice President of Sales for IMAGINeradiology, a leading suite of automated, optimized practice management solutions.

Hayes brings more than 16 years of software sales and management experience to the IMAGINeradiology team. He previously worked with Fortune 100 companies in sales, consulting and networking and has been instrumental in the rapid expansion of IMAGINeradiology during his two years with the company.

"Frank has been a valuable asset and his efforts have helped ensure IMAGINeradiology's gains in market share. In his new role Frank will continue to provide the leadership and sales effort he has exhibited since joining the Imagine team." said Mitch Byrd, Vice President of Business Development.

"The IMAGINeradiology™ practice management system delivers unprecedented results and the radiology community has recognized how well its 'next generation' improvements streamline processes and improve profitability," said Hayes. "IMAGINE's bright future is underlined by a dynamic ability to respond to the market innovatively and a dedicated team that stands behind the product."
